DIGITAL DEFENSE TO PARTICIPATE IN JACK HENRY'S NATIONAL USER GROUP CONFERENCE AND TECHNOLOGY SHOWCASE

San Antonio, TX – October 2, 2006 – Digital Defense, Inc., a provider of network security compliance and risk management services, today announced they are exhibiting at Jack Henry's National User Group Conference and Technology Showcase. The event will take place at the Gaylord Palms Resort & Convention Center in Orlando, FL on October 23 - 27th, 2006.

"We congratulate Jack Henry & Associates for achieving the remarkable corporate milestone of 30 years in business. Participating in Jack Henry's User Group Conference and Technology Showcase during such a momentous year is truly exciting," stated Larry R. Hurtado, President and CEO of Digital Defense. "We recognize the importance of establishing a solid track record of business performance when working with financial institutions. We have been serving clients with our security compliance and risk management solutions since January 2000 and we have remained focused on meeting the evolving needs of financial institutions. We continue to invest in our service offerings as well as the training of our security personnel. Keeping our solutions and our personnel current is of paramount importance to us. We look forward to the opportunity to meet with financial institution decision-makers who use Jack Henry's technology. We believe that discussing our security compliance and risk management service offerings will be both timely and germane for conference participants that are looking for effective and affordable ways to safeguard their service operation."

The Technology Showcase portion of the Jack Henry & Associates (JHA) Users Conference is where conference attendees can meet with technology partners such as Digital Defense to hear their industry and market insights as well as learn more about the product and service portfolios of these firms.
